THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

THE SENATE DISCUSSES THE INTER-STATE LIQUOR BILL.

Its Constitutionality is Questioned—The House Continues the Discussion of the River and Harbor Bill.
[By United Press.]

WASHINGTON, May 27.—(Senate)—The Senate resumed consideration of the bill subjecting imported liquors to the provisions of the laws of the several States, the question being on the substitute reported yesterday from the judiciary committee, providing that liquor so transported shall (when their actual and continuous transportation shall have terminated) be considered to have ceased to be the subjects of commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and shall be a part of the common mass of property within the State and be subject to its police regulations.

Mr. Coke argued against the constitutional right of Congress to delegate its delegated powers back to the States. The bill went over without action. The Vice-President announced the appointment of Mr. Blackburn as a member of the committee on finance, Territories and woman suffrage.

After an executive session, the Senate adjourned till tomorrow.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—The House discussed the river and harbor bill all day.

An amendment to make Lake Borgne an outlet for the Mississippi river was defeated.

THE PETERSBURG MUSIC FESTIVAL.

Grand Musical Productions by Master Artists—A Gay City.
[By United Press.]

PETERSBURG, Va., May 27.—The seventh annual music festival opened this afternoon with a piano recital by Richard Barmister, of the Peabody Conservatory of Baltimore. His principal number was Beethoven's "Sonata Appassionata," which he played with masterly touch and expression. At the concert to night he played with equal success Beethoven's "Emperor" Concerto. Miss Jennie Dutton, soprano, New York; Mrs. Virginia P. Marwick, contralto, of Hartford, Conn.; Whitney Mackridge, tenor, of Chicago; and Clarence E. Hay, baritone, of Boston, were the vocal soloists to day.

The principal choral work to-day was Wagner's "Siegfried Idyll," sung by the Festival chorus of two hundred voices. The orchestra from Baltimore, consists of forty pieces. Carl Zerran is the festival conductor. The city is handsomely decorated and a good many visitors are in town.

SOME BAPTISTS AT CHICAGO.

Playing Over the Disagreement With Reference to the Color Line.
[By United Press.]

CHICAGO, Ill., May 27.—The Baptist Home Mission Society still had possession of the "anniversary" this morning when the day's session was opened with the usual devotional exercises. The brother who led in prayer referred with much feeling to the little disagreement over the color line, which marred the proceedings of the last evening, and implored the members of the great mission society to love lovingly, to speak lovingly, and to permit the spirit of love to rule.

IN SYMPATHY WITH THE FARMERS.

Gov. Gordon Says They are the Victims of all Sorts of Bad Legislation.
[By United Press.]

ATLANTA, May 27.—Gov. Gordon, replying to a series of questions propounded to the leading politicians by the Farmers' Alliance, declares himself fully in sympathy with the aims of that organization. He regards the farmers as the victims of all sorts of bad legislation and is glad to see them organize for self-protection.

The Wild Mayor Still in the Swamps.

[By United Press.]

CEDAR KEYS, Fla., May 27.—An election was held yesterday for city clerk and assessor. R. A. Coachman was elected clerk, and J. O. Andrews assessor. The city is quiet and Mayor Cottrell is still "down on the Suwanee river." The cutter McLane is lying off the city.

A Bank Cashier's Big Shortage.

[By United Press.]

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., May 27.—In the judgment of leading citizens, there is a shortage in the accounts of C. A. Thompson, cashier of the Owego National Bank, to the extent of $75,000.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 27.—The annual session of the Supreme court Knights of the Mystic Chair began here at 11 o'clock this morning and will continue for several days.

THE MEDICAL CONVENTION.

One Hundred Doctors in Attendance at Oxford—Sixty-Seven Applicants For License to Practice Medicine.

[Special to the STATE CHRONICLE.]

OXFORD, N. C., May 27.—The 37th Annual Session of the North Carolina State Medical Society met here to-day and Oxford, usually so busy handling the golden weed, stopped for a while to extend a cordial welcome to her guests and quite royal has been their reception. The local reception committee met every train coming into Oxford with carriages. The delegates are here taken in charge and assigned to homes among the citizens.

The session to-day was opened with prayer by Rev. W. L. Cunningham, after which Hon. A. H. A. Williams delivered the address of welcome. It was full of the cordial and hospitable spirit for which Oxford and its people are noted, and at its close the members of the society felt just like they were at their own homes and among their own neighbors.

The address of welcome was responded to by Dr. J. H. Hodges on behalf of the convention. His response was couched in elegant diction and delivered in a manner so impressive and eloquent as to thrill the convention. Dr. Hodges paid a beautiful tribute to one of the noble women of Oxford—one whose philanthropy and great work for beneficent objects have been the object of admiration and pride of North Carolinians everywhere, and whose life and work have been an inspiration to hundreds of people to work for the good of their fellow creatures.

The speaker did not mention any name, but everybody knew he was talking about Mrs. S. A. Elliott, and thenceforward she was the subject of much favorable comment. He is one of the brainiest young men in North Carolina and one of the best.

There are one hundred physicians present, and there are sixty-seven applicants for license to practice in the State.

In the afternoon a valuable voluntary paper, contributed by Dr. W. A. Hammond, of Washington, D. C., was read, the subject being "The Differential Diagnosis of the Spinal Affections." This paper was the special order for 4:45 p. m., and was heard by the entire medical fraternity assembled, and also by a large audience of visitors.

Among the applicants to practice medicine are: Dr. Call H. Sexton, of Raleigh; and young Dr. Gattis, of Garner, Wake county.

Tomorrow the Medical Society will hold a joint session with the State Board of Health.

A new board of medical examiners will be elected at this meeting.

It is Decided to Divide the Holston Conference.

[By United Press.]

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 27.—In the M. E. Conference to-day the proposition to take from Holston conference its North Carolina territory and add to the new western North Carolina conference was agreed to after long debate.

Rev. F. D. Swindell, of North Carolina, was elected a member of the Board of Missions on Saturday morning.

In the vote for editor in chief of the Nashville Christian Advocate Rev. Frank L. Reid, editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, received votes.

The new editor created a sensation in the conference on last Monday by offering an amendment to the deliverance on worldliness including among the immoral acts the racing of horses, raising and selling of race horses, and the editing and owning of Sunday newspapers.

Rev. W. S. Black, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District, also received quite a complimentary vote for the important position of Book Agent. On the first ballot he received 36 votes, and on the second ballot 36 votes. J. D. Barbee, the present agent, was re-elected.

Saturday's St. Louis Globe Democrat says: Rev. F. D. Swindell, Presiding Elder of the Wilmington (N. C.) Conference, one of the leading divines at the General Conference of the M. E. Church South, will speak to the children at the Neidringhaus Memorial Mission at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

The Nominating Convention Called to Meet at Smithfield on July 1st.

The executive committee of the Fourth Judicial district met here yesterday for the purpose of calling a convention to nominate a judge and solicitor. There were present W. N. Jones, of Wake; chairman; F. A. Daniels, of Wayne; E. S. Abell, of Johnston and P. A. Carter, representing Harnett. The convention was called to meet at Smithfield on Tuesday, July 1st.

The Iowa Judge Endorsed.

[Sanford Express.]

An Iowa Judge has given it as his opinion that a liquor saloon is a nuisance and has instructed the grand jury to indict the keeper for that reason. We believe with the Judge and we know that no man who keeps the saloon is of good moral character.

A Lawyer Killed by Apaches.

[By United Press.]

TOMBSTONE, Arizona, May 27.—Yesterday morning the town was excited by the bringing in of the dead body of Robert Hardie, a prominent Los Angeles lawyer, who was killed Saturday in the Chiricahua mountains by hostile Apaches.

The Rev. Mr. Smith preached a very able sermon at the tent last night, the results of which were two conversions and a great many rising for prayers.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

An Endorsement of Dr. Kingsbury For The Chair of Moral and Mental Philosophy.

[Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.]

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Mr. Bunn received the necessary information from the lawyers and judges, referred to in his interview of Saturday morning, and promptly introduced the bill to establish a district court at Raleigh Saturday afternoon.

I wish, as a North Carolinian, to endorse Dr. T. B. Kingsbury for the position vacated by the death of the late Dr. Mangum. He is in every way qualified to adorn the place, and after many years of hard labor, deserves this recognition at the hands of his fellow-citizens.

At one evening session of the House last week one hundred and thirty-nine private pension bills were passed. As these claims are invariably first rejected for want of satisfactory proof, after careful examination by the pension Bureau, it would seem that the House had developed a remarkable capacity for business, to dispose of so great an amount of it in so short a time.

THE TELEGRAPH.

There is Urgent Reason why the Government Should own the Telegraph.

[Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.]

TRINITY COLLEGE, N. C., May 27.—I write to assure you that I fully appreciate the urgent editorial in a recent number of the DAILY CHRONICLE on the governmental possession of the telegraph. I shall hope to prepare an article containing the grounds of opposition to the present system. For the present, suffice it to say that one-half of the telegrams I send now reach their destination in time. It takes fifteen hours for a telegram to come from Durham to Trinity College and one hour less from Asheville. I find the system practically a rat-hole as far as getting any good out of it is concerned. I believe that the usually overworked operators are not so much to blame as the management. I trust that the days of the Western Union are numbered.

Executive Committee of the Fourth Congressional District.

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Fourth Congressional district at the Yarrowburgh House, in this city, on Friday evening, June 13th, 1890, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of fixing the date for holding the Congressional convention. The committee consists of the following gentlemen: E. S. Parker, Esq., Alamance; Hon. T. B. Womack, Chatham; J. S. Manning, Esq., Durham; Hon. C. M. Cooke, Franklin; E. S. Abell, Esq., Johnston; R. A. P. Cooley, Esq., Nash; A. J. Ruffin, Esq., Orange; W. C. Stronach, Esq., Wake.

N. B. BROUGHTON, Chairman.

THE BAPTIST FEMALE UNIVERSITY.

The Trustees in Session—Some Interesting Questions Being Discussed.

The trustees of the Baptist Female University met here last night.

It was suggested that there was some confusion as to the name of the new institution, it being spoken of as both a college and university. The board settled the matter by officially declaring that it was the Baptist Female University.

It is an accepted fact that university work cannot be commenced until the new buildings are up and the endowment raised, and it is thought that this work cannot be done till next year or perhaps before the beginning of 1892.

Last night the board discussed the question as to whether or not the buildings now on the site should be rented to any one for the purpose of opening a school, not to be in any way under the control and responsibility of the lessee—the school to run until the erection of the new buildings should be begun.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the executive committee is authorized to lease the property under its control for the purpose of opening a Baptist school or otherwise until such time as this board may be able to erect suitable buildings and open the University for its regular work.

At Cost.

Our entire line of fine dress goods that cost as much or more than 20 cents per yard at prime cost. A large line. A beautiful line. Ladies see them at SWINDELL'S.

An Account of the Proceedings—Rev. J. E. Mann's Death, &c.

(Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 23, 1890.—The Conference is approaching its close, and business is rapidly disposed of, though every measure is carefully considered. The various committees have nearly completed their work. The committees on Temperance, Christian Sabbath and Spiritual State of the Church have reported, and have reaffirmed the position of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on these questions, as set forth in previous utterances.

In the adoption of reports on Publishing Interests, Church Extension and Missions, the General Conference provided for enlarged and more extensive machinery for the prosecution of these enterprises. An assistant book agent, one additional Church Extension Secretary, and one additional Missionary Secretary are to be elected and will take the field throughout the M. E. Church, South, in an active campaign.

On yesterday afternoon, after an able sermon by Bishop Keener, the two new Bishops (Haygood and Fitzgerald) were ordained. Bishop Haygood presided this morning. On taking the chair he was greeted with applause, as was Bishop Fitzgerald, when he ascended the platform and took his seat with the Bishops.

The announcement this morning that the expenses of the members of the General Conference would be paid in full was received with evident satisfaction, but not altogether from a personal motive, but in view of the fact that the Methodist of St. Louis had generously met the deficiency in the fund raised by the conference for this purpose, for which the conference tendered its grateful thanks.

The reports from the committees on education and Sunday-schools were considered to-day and rejected. They provided for a secretary for each of these departments, but in their rejection, the opponents of the measures considered the present provisions of law on these subjects sufficient for the objects sought to be attained.

The General Conference proceeded to the election of connectional officers. They are, as now provided for: A book agent, assistant book agent, editor, and assistant editor of Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn. Three missionary secretaries; secretary and assistant secretary of church extension; book editor, and Sunday School editor—13 in all. To this writing (May 24th) the following have been elected: Book agent, J. D. Barbee, D. D., of Tennessee; book agent, D. M. Smith, Esq., of Tennessee; assistant book agent, Rev. J. O. John, D. D., of Texas; Rev. A. Coke Smith, D. D., of South Carolina and Rev. H. C. Morrison, D. D., of Georgia, missionaries' secretaries; Rev. David Morton, D. D., of Kentucky, and Rev. J. C. Morris, of Missouri, respectively secretary and assistant secretary of church extension. Bishop Fitzgerald presided at this afternoon and evening sessions (23d). On taking the chair for the first time he was the recipient of a hearty applause. His first act was to preside over the election of his successor as editor of the Christian Advocate.

Bishop Fitzgerald announced this (Saturday) morning the death of Rev. James E. Mann, D. D., of North Carolina Conference, and suggested that the delegation of that conference would take proper action concerning memorial services in this church.

The delegation afterwards met and arranged for memorial services at Centenary church, to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, appointing Rev. J. R. Brooks, D. D., to preach the memorial sermon. The illness of Dr. Mann was short—eight or ten days. The force of the attack prostrated him almost at once. Dr. Mann is known to our people. He was born in Chatham county, N. C., December 26, 1832. His age was, therefore, nearly 58 years. From the age of sixteen years he has been connected with the M. E. Church, South. He was admitted into the North Carolina Conference when twenty years old. His record of service is about twenty-one years on stations, eight years on circuit, and eight years as Presiding Elder. Dr. Mann was a fine preacher, popular pastor and a true Christian gentleman. Thousands of friends in North Carolina will lament his death, as a loss to them, his church and society.

His remains will leave here Monday morning next for North Carolina under escort of Rev. Dr. W. S. Black and D. W. Bain.

D. W. BAIN.

Maj. W. L. Young Dead.

The Wilmington Messenger says: The sad intelligence was received here yesterday evening of the death of Maj. W. L. Young, of this city, which event took place at the residence of his brother near Apex, in Wake county, yesterday afternoon. His funeral will take place at Cary to-day.

Maj. Young was well known in North Carolina, from his enthusiastic connection with the Goshen canal scheme, and his zealous efforts to drain the lands adjacent through Duplin and Onslow.

For some years he has resided in this city, conducting a real estate agency. He was suffering seriously from the effects of the grippe, but seemed to be improving, when he left here for Apex for the purpose of recuperating. The announcement of his death was quite a surprise.

At Cost.

Over two hundred different styles of fine dress goods at actual cost. Biggest sacrifice sale ever given in Raleigh, at SWINDELL'S.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

THE ASSEMBLY HAS A BOUT WITH THE RACE QUESTION.

The Revision Committee—The Closing Day and Its Interesting Features.
(By United Press.)

SARATOGA, May 27.—The report of the committee on the freedmen as to allowing colored Presbyteries to appeal directly to the other boards, was against the request. The report was taken up. Dr. Booth opposed discrimination and thought one Presbytery was as good as another. To place the colored Presbyteries in a separate category was unfair, and while it was done the manhood of the colored people was impugned and they could not feel at home in the Presbyterian church. He moved that the request be granted.

The vote was taken on Dr. Booth's amendment and the call of division settled it in the affirmative. The vote stood 150 to 145, and was taken amid considerable excitement.

The nominating committee announced the following as the committee which is to do the actual work of revision and to report to the assembly of 1891. The committee as named was accepted by the assembly unanimously: Seminary professors—W. H. Green, Princeton; Thomas H. Hastings, Union; M. B. Ruddle, Allegheny; W. J. Boecker, Auburn; E. D. Morris, Lane; Herrick Johnson, McConnell; Wm. Alexander, San Francisco. College presidents—Frances L. Patton, Princeton; Wm. C. Roberts, Lake Forest. Pastors—W. E. Moore, Columbus, Ohio; (Moderator of assembly); H. J. Vandye, Brooklyn; Ebenezer Erskine, Chambersburg, Pa.; J. T. Lettwith, Baltimore; J. C. Nichols, St. Louis; E. R. Burkhead, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Elders—Ex-Judge Wm. Strong, Washington, D. C.; ex-senator J. R. McMillin, St. Paul; Judge Alfred Hand; Scranton, Pa.; Emerson E. White, Cincinnati; Judge Henry B. Gaynor, Huntington, Ind.; Winthrop S. Sillman, New York; Barker Emere, Trenton, N. J.; Wm. Ernst, Covington, Ky.; Geo. J. McKin, Phila., Charles K. Charney, Chicago.

The committee on necrology reported 117 deaths in the ministry during the year. The list was read and the assembly stood while Dr. White offered a prayer.

R. E. Finkinger and J. E. Griffin, of Iowa, were appointed a committee to stop at Washington and present the assembly's "original package" resolution to the Senate of the United States.

The committee on revision was empowered to publish its conclusions, if reached, before the time of the next assembly.

The question of reimbursing the church at Jacksonville, Fla., came up at the call of the committee on finance. Little of Texas, offered a resolution to reimburse the church at Jacksonville, Fla., for the cost of the building, to be taken from the general fund. Dr. Roberts strongly opposed the resolution, saying the assembly had no right to so disburse the money paid into the treasury by the Presbyteries. Dr. Van Dyke agreed with Mr. Roberts as to the contingent fund, but hoped the Presbyterian church would pay the church at Jacksonville the just debt it owed. The matter was referred to the next assembly.

In closing the assembly Dr. Moore said:

"Fathers and brethren: The hour has come when whatever of duty we were to discharge and have been able to do has been done. Few assemblies ever met with a heavier sense of responsibility. Few have ever met the hour of adjournment with a better feeling of satisfaction, and all has been accomplished in a spirit of brotherly love and a spirit of devotion to the Master I speak, I think, your minds when I say, that ever this assembly from the beginning, God has ruled."

And now, brethren, in your wisdom, it has pleased you to appoint a committee to revise that good old blue banner that has waved over our heads for so many years. I pray you there shall go up the prayer of your hearts, your churches and your synods to God for this revision committee. Brethren, as you go hence, may God's blessing go with you."

After a fervent prayer by Dr. Crosby and the singing of the hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds," the moderator pronounced the benediction and the assembly adjourned sine die.

At Cost.

Over two hundred styles of fine wool dress goods at actual cost. We are selling our entire line at cost at SWINDELL'S.

For Clerk of Superior Court.

(Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.)

Among the large number of worthy gentlemen mentioned for the county offices of Wake county—many of whom by qualifications and character would fill the positions with credit to themselves and friends—there was one suggested in an article signed Swift Creek who seems to this writer specially fitted for the position named. He is a gentleman of natural business talent well cultivated with a high sense of honor and withal a most genial and affable companion. He makes friends and acquaintances at the same time.

Elect him, and your business relations with the office will of necessity be pleasant.

Let Wake Democracy be wise and add strength to the ticket by nominating Mr. E. McK. Goodwin for Clerk of Superior Court. He would be alike pleasing to the farmer and city vote and who would be able to give the "Republican Lion" a clear and decisive defeat.

"MIDDLE CREEK"

At Cost.

Fifty thousand yards of fine dress goods, all colors and qualities at actual cost. No reserve, but the whole line goes at cost. Ladies go see them, at SWINDELL'S.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

Preparations for the Grandest Commencement in the History of the College.

[Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.]

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, May 27.—Extensive preparations are being made for commencement. The grass on the campus is being cut, the boys are studying and getting up their speeches, the girls are looking out for engagements for commencement. Those who attend this year will have several more things to amuse them than usual, and a good many more conveniences. And we see no reason why every one who possibly can should not come out and help us celebrate. We are sure that the grave as well as the gay, the ugly as well as the beautiful, the poor as well as the rich will enjoy themselves. Wake Forest is thrown open to all, and will give them a right hearty welcome—especially, the girls. A commencement would not be a commencement without these fair creatures, and, as we want to have one, we would be under many obligations if they would come—ONE AND ALL.

The programme is unusually attractive. Having such men on its list as the learned Judge Davis, our own Tom Dixon, who is so well known that no comment is necessary, and Rev. W. W. Landrum, a young but deservedly popular minister of Richmond, it is sure to prove interesting to every one. In addition to this, the Eastern Society and the reading room and library will be lighted by gas, which has just been brought into use out here. The En. Society chandeliers are very elaborate and costly, and make an exceedingly fine appearance. For the convenience of the girls and boys, double doors have been cut from each society hall into the library, thus giving a passage-way on each side of eight feet. This improvement has been long needed, on account of the narrowness of the entrances to the halls, as all who have ever attended any of the exercises out here will testify. On the whole, we think it was a wise step, and it is mentioned for the benefit of those who have ever been troubled by the "crampedness" of which we spoke, with the request that they come and see for themselves whether it is not a great improvement.

The exercises on Monday night (class day) are generally the most entertaining of all, and we are sure that the participants this year will not fall far below their predecessors.

With this truthful, yet imperfect, description of our most enjoyable occasion, I will close. We are all studying hard now, but we remember that there is "sweet after bitter," and so are consoled.

Resolutions by Wake County Alliance on the 20th.

WHEREAS, The Farmers' Alliance is not a political organization, and its mission is not to act in partisan politics, and

WHEREAS, Its membership is composed of individuals from all political parties; and

WHEREAS, Its members and its friends are opposed to all class feeling, as well as to all class legislation; therefore be it

RESOLVED, By the Wake county Farmers' Alliance in regular session assembled, that we will not attempt, inside the Alliance, to nominate any candidate for any political office in the gift of the people of this county, but that every true Alliance man, who loves his country and his own best interests, will attend the primary conventions of the party, of which he is a member, and use his influence to nominate such men only as we can depend upon to carry out the principles of our organization and the measures growing out of those principles. And be it further

RESOLVED, That we will not use our influence for or against any candidate for nomination because of the class or the profession to which he may belong. And be it further

RESOLVED, That we have confidence in the intelligence and honesty of the members of our order, and believe that they may be safely trusted to control its actions for the best interests of the people. Therefore, we do recommend that all such of the partisan newspapers as are continually offering their unasked advice, and by their insinuations and innuendos are stirring up class feeling, to exercise in future sufficient discretion as to prove themselves capable of attending to their own business.

A. C. GREEN, Pres't.

J. J. DUNN, Sec'y.

For Register of Deeds.

(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)

The names of several good men have been mentioned for the office of Register of Deeds for Wake county. But of all these names, the Democrats could not do a wiser act than to nominate Robert A. Young, of Cary township, and for the following reasons.

First: He is a man of an unblemished character, about thirty-eight years old, of a good English education, thoroughly competent, a prominent member of the Farmers' Alliance, a hard-working and successful farmer, and highly esteemed by all who know him.

Second: He is the man to break the force of J. P. H. Adams in Cary township, his stronghold, and win an assured Democratic victory throughout the county. He is strongly related in many parts of the county, and to nominate him would be equivalent to a victory.
